of the opposition certain to be encountered from the bears, who are not going to give up without a struggle, especially as they have such events as bank full ures and other troubles in their favor. The posted rates of sterling exchange were lowered another half cent to 4821-2 and 4841-2, and the talk of gold imports was revived. The chances are that some bankers will engage gold for shipment to this side within a day or two. A movement of this sort would go a long way to re-establish confidence, which is sadly needed, for the reason that money now hourded would be speedily released.
